

Dear Bureaucrats and Officials:

I want to go on record. I have lived in the Durango area since 1985 as a registered voter. I have never seen any political ads concerning Colorado on my television. I want every government official to know that I am a very concerned citizen. If my fellow voters have to pay extra to see Colorado advertising, especially political ads, how can we be fully informed voters? I do not have access to cable tv, and dish tv also does not provide Colorado stations other than PBS.

I feel that it is gross irresponsibility for a government agency to promulgate political ignorance. It is frustrating as well. Please fix our problem, or let our counties secede from Colorado and join New Mexico. (Yes, I am being sarcastic here. I hope you can appreciate how frustrating it is to live in one state and see all of the political ads and news from another state!)

Sincerely,

Gerald Brush

PS. I did not put any numbers in the form because I don't have the patience or the mind-set to search oblique menus for my issue. I am a high school teacher with a master's degree and your website has more obfuscation and gobbledegook than I can tolerate.
